At Jill's House Weekend Adventures – Hill Country, your group will be “buddies” to kids with special needs (ages 6-17), giving them the opportunity to spend a weekend away, meeting new friends, trying fun and exciting activities and gaining independence in an exciting, safe environment. To give you a better idea of what your weekend experience will be like, we've included a camp map with pictures and details about the weekend!

What does our arrival and departure look like?

Your group should plan to arrive at Camp Buckner Hill no later than 5:00 pm on Friday for training on what to expect throughout the weekend. The children will arrive in time for dinner. On Sunday afternoon, the children will leave camp around 12:30 pm, after which we will have a quick debrief meeting and then you are free to go!

What activities will we participate in?

At camp you will help your buddy with activities like archery, ropes courses, zip line and swimming (weather permitting). We also have a s'mores campfire on Saturday evening.

Is food provided throughout the weekend?

All food for the weekend is prepared by camp staff in the main kitchen. Dietary restrictions such as a gluten and/or casein free diet are accommodated for, and refrigeration is available for those that need to bring special foods. Should someone in your group have dietary restrictions, please contact Gary Filson so he can pass the information to our weekend staff.

Where will we sleep during the weekend?

At Jill's House Weekend Adventures - Hill Country, your group sleeps in small, shared cabins, separate from the children and staff. Bathrooms are located in each cabin!
