About Jill's House

Jill's House is a full-service, overnight respite center that provides families of children with special needs with important time to rest, and gives their children a safe, fun environment, tailored to their unique abilities. This 42,000-square foot, 45-bed resort for children (ages 6-17) is located in the Washington D.C. metropolitan area, and is open to families of all faiths and backgrounds. Additionally, Jill's House serves families in Maryland, Virginia, California, Texas, Indiana, and Arizona through local partnerships, with plans for new locations in the coming years

The Impact of Jill's House:

- Since 2010, Jill's House has provided nearly 500,000 hours of hope and renewal to over 700 families.
- An estimated 40,000+ children with special needs live in the greater Washington, D.C. area.
- About 50% of the children we serve have autism spectrum disorder (ASD); 20% have Down syndrome; 10% have a chromosomal disorder or genetic abnormality; and 20% have a wide array of diagnoses, from cerebral palsy to brain injury.
- On average, Jill's House serves 427 children every month.
- Families who receive a full weekend of respite report a 73% reduction in stress.
- Every 28 hours a new family registers their child to stay at Jill's House.

Grant lights up when he's at Jill's House. Help save marriages and keep families together by giving them the gift of Jill's House.

With your support, you give the gift of Jill's House to a child with special needs and the gift of rest, hope and renewal to those who love them. Help us as we together celebrate special children and renew their families.

Please take a few moments to consider these opportunities to determine what sponsorship level works best for you. Your presence and partnership enable Jill's House to serve families and their children with special needs.
